

Australian Meteorological & Oceanographic Society

2010 ART COMPETITION

Artist Name: _____ Year Level: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

School Name: _____

School Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Entry type: (please tick)

Primary School

Secondary School

Category type: (please tick)

Short story/Poem

Painting/Drawing

Song

Textile

Description of submission and its connection to the atmosphere or ocean (100 words or less)

Each entry must be accompanied by a completed AMOS Art Competition Entry Form

Declaration of original work

I, _____, declare that this submission is my own original work and that I have read and agreed to the competition conditions of entry attached to this application form.

Signed: _____ Dated: _____

Please complete and return this form with your competition entry before or by Friday, 5 November 2010 to: Administrative Officer, AMOS, (700 Collins Street) GPO Box 1289, Melbourne 3001.

Australian Meteorological & Oceanographic Society
2010 ART COMPETITION

Competition Conditions of Entry

Submission

- Entries must be received by Friday, 5 November 2010
- Only one entry per person
- Electronic entries are invited, provided file size is less than 2 Mg in size
- Entries must be submitted to the Administrative Officer either by email: admin_officer@amos.org.au or by post
AMOS, GPO Box 1289, Melbourne, Vic 3001
- Songs may be submitted on CD or emailed as an MP3 file
- All entries will be returned to the artist, provided that you include return postage with your submission or arrange to collect your entry.

Judging Criteria

Entries will be judged on:

- Creativity
- Interest
- How they relate to the themes of atmosphere and ocean

Prizes

- The two winning artists will be notified by email and the results and winning entries published in the AMOS Bulletin
- Each winning artist will receive a cash prize of $50
- The winning entries will be exhibited at the 2011 AMOS Annual Conference, venue and dates yet to be announced
- Each winning artist's school will receive
 - A book on atmosphere and oceans for their library
 - Entry to the 2011 AMOS conference. (Please note that winners and their families must pay their own travel and accommodation if they wish to attend the conference)
 - One year free membership of AMOS.

All entries are received on the understanding that they may be used for publicity purposes by AMOS in the Bulletin and Website, and that the two winning entries will be displayed at the 2011 Annual Conference.